DICK WELLES' GREAT RACE.

The most sensational performance ever witnessed on the American turf took place at Washington Park yesterday. In the first race, three-quarters of a mile, J. B. Respess' wonderful three-year-old Dick Welles was turned the wrong way when the start was effected, but went after the field and, with a meteoric finish, beat John A. Drake's Run-nels a head and established a new record for the distance in a race run around a turn. The official time of the race was 1:112, one-fifth of a second better than the former record of 1:12, held by Bummer and Lux Casta. Dick Welles did over a second better. He was individually timed by several competent timers in 1:10g. Fred Wood caught him in 1:10g. It was an unprecedented and almost incredible feat that created intense enthusiasm and evoked general and pro-longed applause. The colt was a public favorite, backed by small and big bettors. The start shocked and provoked the crowd. After period of greeful happiness immediately llowing the finish of the race, there was a reaction to ill humor and intemperate expression, which prevailed throughout the afternoon. The bad send off caused the real quality to be revealed, but was probably fortunate for the starter that race resulted as it did. Directly after start John Peters became the pacethe er, with Martinmas, Bardolph and Runin close attendance. A. D. Gibson and eral were outspeeded from the opening des. Beginning the upper turn John strides. Beginning the upper turn John Peters drew clear of his followers so swiftly that he looked a certain winner when half way around. The spurt stimulated C. Gray, who rallied Runnels and sent him along at a clip that brought him to Peters' saddle at the end of a half mile. Meanwhile Knight had rated Dick Welles judiciously. He had rated Dick Welles judiciously. He passed Federal at the half mile ground and little farther along caught A. D. Gibson Until rounding into the homestretch there was no indication that the favorite would be asked to extend himself. Then he dashed through into third position. He straight-ened out in the middle of the track and three open lengths behind John Peters and Runnels, apparently sure to finish first and sec With a little over three-sixteenths to Knight pointed him to the inside and ond. The response was a flash let him down. of speed that rapidly lessened the space between him and the leading pair, bewildered the railbirds scattered along the stretch and caused them to yell frantically. Fast as he went, he did not catch Runnels, which had beaten John Peters, until within a hundred yards of the goal. When he became a contender the occupants of the lawn and grandstand became impressed as had the spectators farther up the track and intense and demonstrative excitement resulted. When, in an energetic and close final strug-gle, he reached the goal first by a head it ed as if pandemonium had broken loose when the magic time was bulletined was another hysterical manifestation of delight. Another outburst occurred as the great colt returned to the scales. And as he was led back to his stall by a colored attendant, who was visibly afflicted with emotional insanity, his progress was marked by spasmodic greetings, which only ended when the stable boys about the upper turn had exhausted their vocal resources. Dick Welles was with one accord received as a hero. It was a spontaneous and mighty

S. W. Streett & Co.'s chestnut filly Witchcraft won the second race, five furlongs, in thirteen maiden two-year-olds carwhich thirteen maiden two-year-olds carried colors. Jason, the favorite, made all the running and was caught and headed in the closing strides. The winner got away poorly, was admirably ridden by C. Gray, and ran through the final quarter in a whirlwind manner. At the head of the stretch Trompeuse was second and Buccaneer third, seemingly certain of places. Instructor, ridden by Crowhurst, ran out on the turn

The Kenwood Stakes, five furlongs, for two-year-olds, was won by an outsider in the betting. Talbot Brothers' Prince Silver-wings, by The Commoner-Miss Leaflet, a 15 to 1 chance, getting home first. Proceeds was the favorite and English Lad a strong second choice. English Lad was obstructed and pulled up in the opening rush and Prowas outrun at every point by winner, Requiter and Lonsdale. The latter showed the way from the gate until near the deciding line, while Requiter and Prince Silverwings were alternating as second and third, slight margins separating them. The stakes were secured by a length and Re-quiter beat Lonsdale a head. Peter J. The quiter beat Lonsdale a head. Peter Somero ran out, but exhibited great speed.

M. H. Tichenor & Co.'s Waswift, the favor ite, won the fourth race, and equaled the track record of 1:45 for a mile and a sixh. Aladdin was the pilot to the quar-On the backstretch Waswift assumed ter. command and was not afterward headed. Aladdin, Glassfull and Dr. Stephens were prominent for five furlongs. Bragg and Nitrate were the contenders at the end. Fore and Aft nearly beat them in front of the stand. He ran much better than in his previous start. Bragg did likewise, his improvement being noteworthy.

Backed from 10 to 3½ to 1, The Kentuckian led all the way in the fifth race, a selling race of a mile and a sixteenth. He was never in trouble. The gray gelding, Prince Webb, which had been persistently backed, finished trouble. second. He was quoted at 25 to 1. Omdurman was a close third. Miracle II., the s choice, got away badly and finished fourth.

Caviar was heavily backed to win the last race of the day, a mile and a sixteenth, selling. Orsina, a 10 to 1 shot, won, with Haviland less than a length behind. Serge was third, five lengths from the second. The favorite encouraged his backers by leading for nearly a half mile and then weakened. When he retired Orsina and Haviland went out together and contested the purse to the end. T. J. Gallagher.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

C. K. G. Billings, who drove Lou Dillon in her record-breaking performance, was among the visitors yesterday.

Bardolph pulled up very lame after his race

yesterday and may not be started again for some time

H. Dernham made an offer of $2,500 to S. W. Streett for the two-year-old filly Witchcraft, which won the second race yesterday. The offer was refused.

Jockey Dominick, who rode English Lad, stated after the Kenwood Stakes that his mount was collided with by Sanctum and Jerry Lynch when the starter released the gate and the mishap nearly threw English Lad to his knees. Dominick thinks that with Lad to his knees. Dominick thinks that with equal racing luck he would have won.

Winner—B. c. by Wagner—Undecided (trained by W. M. Scheftel).

Went to post at 2:36 At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Wotan has improved greatly in his recent work and on looks should develop into above the average. He cut across his field at the start and led throughout, ran out when turning into the stretch but went on gamely at the end and was probably lucky to beat Floral King. The latter came out of the ruck in the stretch and closed up like a cyclone, although swerving precipitately to the inner rail. Trouville closed a tremendous gap from a bad start and finished fast. Mohave moved up with a rush when straightened for home and evidently favors a distance. Short Cake was crowded on the turn and came again at the finish. Sir Walt swerved all over the course and finished in the deep going. Tommy Rot, vastly improved, dropped from the clouds at the end. Albertola probably favors mud strictly. Doclle showed great improvement.

Winner—B. c, by Ben Strome—Henrietta (trained by T. E. Healy).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Highlander, under a capable pilot, finally showed his true form and at the weights ran the best race he has shown this season. He was crowded directly after the start and was repeatedly forced to pull up and, working his way through in the deep going next to the rail throughout, he drew clear of his field in the last furlong and won going away. Arden consistently ran to his best form and closed up with a rush after being straightened for home. Bob Hilliard had been outrun and did not appear to have much chance, even when beginning the last quarter, but in the last furlong he was running past horses. Agnes D. moved up fast on the outside while rounding the far turn, only to succumb in the stretch run and she may have been short. Akela forced the pace for nearly seven furlongs and held on gamely to the finish. Spring Silk, a more than useful colt, but inadequately handled, was a prominent contender throughout and was crowded over to the fence on the stretch turn and, tiring somewhat, his diminutive rider was unable to help him for a final effort. Tribes Hill unexpectedly failed to stay and his rider was of no assistance to him at the end.

E. E. Farley, who was recently ruled off at Detroit for complicity in the Sarah Black ringing case at the Grosse Pointe track, gained admittance to the track yesterday on account of not being known to the gateen, but was immediately ejected when his presence became known.

Ten horses racing in the name of S. W.

Streett & Co., including Birch Broom, Brush By, Port Royal and By Ways, will arrive tofrom Detroit.

Among the visitors at the track yesterday were the Woodland brothers, two English steeplechase jockeys, who recently arrived from England, and are touring the country from England, and discrete for pleasure.

J. B. Respess and C. R. Ellison were discussing Dick Welles' chances in the paddock as the horses were on their way to the post, when they were approached by another owner, who, addressing Respess, remarked "How about Runnels today?" "I'll be three lengths," was Respess' ready "I'll beat his Just then the starter released the barrie and Dick Welles was standing sideways. Res pess took one swift glance at the start and said: "I don't think I can beat Runnels now." When Dick Welles began moving up at the half-mile post Ellison exclaimed: "You have a chance now, Rome." Respess said nothing until his horse turned into the stretch and began his electric rush, when h turned to the bystanders and remarked 'They will know how fast Dick Welles can run now."

Starting Judge Harvey stated after the first race that Gray and Knight, who respect ively rode Runnels and Dick Welles, were constantly turning their mounts around while at the post and both horses turning at the same time when the other horses were in perfect alignment made the starter think that they would be straightened out fully by the time he released the gate. Runnels turned quickly and was fully in motion, but Dick Welles only turned half way around and was standing sideways when the star was effected. Knight seemed to be undecided whether to chase after the field, but the starting judge's shout of warning to go on made him send Dick Welles along.

Jockey T. Knight was suspended for three days, excepting in stakes, for his failure t leave the post with the rest of the field in the first race.

Miracle II., which started in the fifth race yesterday, was practically left at the post on account of his failure to break when the starter released the gate. Going down the backstretch, he was many lengths behind the last horse, but came with a rush in the stretch run and at the end beat everything but the placed horses. With an even break there was no doubt in the minds of the majority of onlookers that he would have

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start bad, Dick Welles being almost left at the post. Won driving; second easily. Dick Welles, off well back of the field, loafed all down the backstretch, but Knight hustled him up when turning for home and in the greatest sprint ever seen on any track he caught Runnels in the final hundred yards and outstayed him to the wire. The latter ran a high-class race and stood a last eighth drive with great gameness. John Peters showed a marvelous turn of speed, but tired fast in the final eighth. A. D. Gibson was never a serious contender. Martinmas showed much early speed. Dick Welles was separately timed in 1:10g.

Prince Silverwings moved up fast turning for home and getting to Lonsdale in the final sixteenth outstayed him to the wire. Requiter stood a long stretch drive and finished with a rush toward the outside rail just getting up in time to nip Lonsdale on the post. The latter showed much speed, but tired palpably in the closing strides. Proceeds tired fast when a furlong out and appears to run to his best form on a soft or heavy track. English Lad was crowded out of position at the start and had no chance thereafter. Was practically left. De Reszke was a good horse today. Shilling rated him well in front and the horse came away from the others with a rush in the stretch. Eda Riley found the sharp turns bothersome and lost ground on them, but finished strongly. Maltster ran well to the stretch, but tired in the final furlong. Miss West was well placed behind the leaders, saved ground while turning for home, closed up stoutly in the stretch and finished fast. Presbyterian set a hot pace and shook off Tom Crabb, but tired in the stretch run. Orpheum closed up a lot of ground running on the outside and was probably best, as the outside horse has a lot the worst of it on the sharp turns of this track. Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Goldsmith raced into close quarters early and suffered considerable interference before he got clear sailing on the far turn, but Redfern rode him a very confident looking race and patiently bided his time and when ready to move, which he did when beginning the last quarter, the colt quickly ran into the lead and finished easing up. He is unquestionably a high-class racehorse and on his showing today can beat anything in training around New York. Proper finished with a sensational rush after being sharply interfered with on the far turn and ran like a crackerjack. Lux Casta displayed phenomenal speed for seven furlongs, tiring very badly at the end. Igniter, suddenly improved, was closing up in the final quarter. Duke of Kendal was unable to withstand the pace. Yardarm also quit after going a good five furlongs.

Winner—Ch. c, by Mirthful—Flower Dellis (trained by T. Hitchcock, Jr.).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Jocund failed to get away well and early fell in behind the leading bunch, bumping his way through on the turn and took the lead in the last furlong, holding it gamely to the end and won going away. Montreson was a prominent contender throughout and stood a long stretch drive without flinching. Prince Salm Salm, away badly, steadily improved his position and was running fast at the end. Pentaur, on the extreme outside, was outrun to the stretch, where he closed up fast and gamely under Bullman's vigorous finish. Cascine developed unexpected early speed and, in the lead when straightened for home, appeared like winning, but unexpectedly failed to stay and it would not be surprising if he had trained off.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Douro is in great form and equal to a big weight proposition over any distance or kind of track. He went after the flying pacemaker when turning into the backstretch and passing him on the stretch turn seemed to be winning easily, but was desperatetly driven at the end to beat Flying Jib. The latter opened up a wide gap early and appeared like making a runaway race of it, but succumbed rather suddenly to the winner's challenge and then changed his mind and came on again but too late to get up. Four-mile tactics on Surmise were practiced throughout and Haack never did wake up. Colonsay probably raced into staleness quite badly when half the distance had been traversed.

Went to post at 3:37. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Autolight was ridden a waiting race, found an opening at the turn into the homestretch and came through next to the inside rail, caught the leaders tiring in the stretch run and came away cantering. Easy Street was outrun in the first part of the race, but had something left at the end and easily got second place from tiring horses. Glenwood ran well throughout. Hopedale and Honolulu wore each other out in the early pacemaking and tired badly when the pinch came. Bank Street displayed but little speed.
